

Wine List

Our wines are supplied by Britain's oldest and most respected wine merchant, Berry Bros. & Rudd. Established in 1698, the business is still family-owned and run and, like us, believe in the traditional standards of service and quality.

Sparkling

Prosecco di Valdobbiadene, Trevisiol L. et Figli	11.5%	Bottle
		£25.95

The Valdobbiadene region is regarded as one of the best sources of Prosecco grapes, coming from vineyards 300 metres above sea level; here the grape is blended with 15% Chardonnay. White peachy fruit and stony minerality combine to make a delightful aperitif.

Champagne

Berrys' United Kingdom Cuvée, Grand Cru, Maily	12%	£42.95
--	-----	--------

Sourced from the prestigious Grand Cru village of Maily, located at the heart of the Montagne de Reims, and benefiting from over 3 years ageing, this UKC Cuvée is a classic blend of 75% Pinot Noir and 25% Chardonnay. All the hallmarks of Grand Cru are here, with brioche and flowers on the nose and an elegant palate which marries notes of lemon grass and honeysuckle.

Bollinger, Special Cuvée, Brut	12%	£57.95
--------------------------------	-----	--------

A blend par excellence; Special Cuvée is the purest expression of Bollinger's house style. Its biscuity nose is endowed with hints of white fruit and the rich, full-bodied palate is perfectly balanced by fresh acidity and a soft, delicate mousse.

White Wines

		175ml glass	250ml glass
Cococciola Pinot Grigio, Frentana, Italy, 2015	12%	£4.60	£6.20	£17.95

Situated midway between the Appennine mountains and the Adriatic sea, the Frentana winery have produced this refreshing white with subtle notes of citrus, green apple and melon, together with traces of herbs and minerals on the finish.

Domaine de Bertier Sauvignon/Viognier, France 2015	12%	£4.85	£6.40	£18.50
--	-----	-------	-------	--------

An unusual blend that works well with the Sauvignon providing zingy, zesty lime characteristics whilst the Viognier lends more roundness to the wine adding tropical melon and peachy aromas.

Berrys' Reserve White, C. Collovray & J-L. Terrier, France	13.5%	£4.85	£6.40	£18.50
--	-------	-------	-------	--------

A great all-rounder, this white is made predominantly from Chardonnay but is cleverly blended with Mauzac, Vermentino and a little Sauvignon Blanc to give a wine that is an attractive mix of citric fruitiness combined with pear overtones and a touch of herbaciousness in the background.

Berrys' Chilean Sauvignon Blanc, Viña Quintay, Casablanca Valley, 2015	13.5%	£23.50
--	-------	--------

Sourced from vineyards in the high, low and central Casablanca, this outstanding wine has wonderfully fresh aromatics and a ripe, tropical fruit personality. Extra lees ageing has added a subtle weight.

2014 Mâcon-Solutré, Le Clos, Dme des Gerbeaux, Drouin, Burgundy 2014	13%	£25.95
--	-----	--------

Beatrice and Jean-Michel Drouin are one of the most respected names in Burgundy's Macon region and farm their vineyards biodynamically. With notes of peach and white flowers, this chardonnay has refreshing minerality and an understated elegance.

Berrys' New Zealand Sauvignon Blanc, Seifried Wines, Nelson, 2015	13.5%	£27.95

Aromas of ripe gooseberries, nettle and mown grass herald a crisp and bone-dry palate, where tropical fruit is superbly balanced by a lovely freshness and long finish. Aromas of apple and spiced pear with a generous mouthfeel and fresh acidity.

			Bottle
Albariño, Igrexario de Saiar, Bodega Sucesores de Benito Santos, Spain, 2014/15 12.5%			£27.50
The 7 hectares of Igrexario de Saiar y Bemil vineyards lie in the province of Pontevedra in Galicia. Albariño is a relatively thick-skinned variety which at its best, as it is here, is rich, full of colour and gently spicy. This pale lemon-coloured wine has aromas of peach, green apple and white flowers. It has a smooth, silky mouthfeel, refreshing acidity and a long finish.
Riesling, Vieilles Vignes, Domaine Lucas & André Rieffel, Alsace, 2012/13	13.5%		£31.95
This old vine Riesling has a golden, sunny glow while the nose reflects the peachy aromas associated with this part of the Alsace world: the Bas-Rhin. The palate follows, being satisfyingly complete, with a succulent, delicious and dry mouthfeel.
Chablis, Domaine du Colombier, T. Mothe, France, 2014/15	12.5%		£32.75
A beautiful, pure unoaked mineral-laden Chablis full of aromatics and zingy fruit but retaining a classic crispness to the palate.
Sancerre, Les Renarderies, Cherier, Loire, France, 2014/15	12.5%		£32.95
Matured on the lees, this vibrant wine has a powerful bouquet with grassy aromas, an intense flinty character and floral spice on the finish.
Gewurztraminer, Vignoble d'E, Domaine Ostertag, Alsace, France, 2011/12	12.5%		£39.95
This fairly young domaine, which began life in the 1960s, has 13 hectares of vines split among 75 plots in five villages. This Gewurztraminer has an intense, rich nose with a grapefruit freshness and some floral characters. The palate is very rich and smooth with a generous texture in an off-dry style.
Puligny-Montrachet, "Tête de Cuvée", François D'Allaines, Burgundy, France, 2012	13%		£55.95
Francois D'Allaines started his eponymous wine business in 1996 in the village of Demigny in Burgundy just across the A6 from the famous villages of the Côte de Beaune. Here he has produced a beautiful Puligny with a powerful melon bouquet on the nose and a melange of tropical fruits, honey and oak on the palate.

Rosé Wines

		175ml glass	250ml glass
Le Chapeau qui Rit Rosé, Pays de l'Hérault, France, 2015 12.5%	£4.50	£6.15		£17.75
This light, aromatic and refreshing rosé from the Languedoc region of Southern France, is made from the Cinsault grape variety and has an attractive pale salmon colour. Perfect as an aperitif or with salads and lighter summery dishes.
Côtes de Provence Rosé, Domaine du Grand Cros, 2015	13.5%			£23.95
From the heart of Provence on Julian Faulkner's family estate, this rosé is a blend of Cinsault, Grenache and Mourvedre and is a careful balance between character and elegance. It offers freshness with a gloriously fruity presence.

Red Wines

Dme de Bertier Merlot/Cabernet Sauvignon, France, 2015 13.5%	£4.85	£6.40		£18.50
A lovely soft red which combines the supple Merlot grape and the fresh forest fruit flavours of the Cabernet Sauvignon resulting in a smooth, ripe rounded wine with a hint of spice on the finish.
Pietas Carignan, Vieilles Vignes, S. France, 2015	12.5%	£4.85	£6.40	£18.50
Made from 40-year old Carignan vines grown in the Languedoc area of southern France, this wine is brimming with delicious ripe, brambly fruit, soft well-balanced tannins and a long finish.
Berrys' Reserve Red, Collovray & Terrier, S. France	13%	£4.85	£6.40	£18.50
This red wine, from outstanding producers Jean-Luc Terrier & Christian Collovray, marries Merlot, Grenache and Syrah and is a delicious pot pourri of red and black fruit, with an attractive herbal backdrop.
Dona Javiera Merlot, Maipo Valley, Chile, 2015/16	13%			£19.95
Rich, succulent, plummy fruit with coffee hints. This wine is made in a traditional, full-bodied style with bags of structure and a long finish.

Stone The Crows Shiraz/Cabernet Sauvignon, S. E. Australia, 2015 13.5% Bottle
£20.95

This soft, ripe and juicy blend of Shiraz and Cabernet Sauvignon from the New World is easy drinking but with impressive subtle aromas and elegance on the palate.

Berrys' Good Ordinary Claret, Dourthe, Bordeaux, 2014 13.5% £21.95

The Merlot component provides a wonderful, plump richness of berry fruit and plums to the core of the wine, while the Cabernet Sauvignon imbues it with a finesse, aromatic elegance and structure. There is harmony and balance, and the tannins are beautifully ripe so there is no austerity to the wine at all.

Rioja, Vendimia, Palacios Remondo, Spain, 2015 14% £24.95

This Rioja has been aged for 5 months in wooden vats and French oak barrels. Once bottled, the wine is fresh and fruity, with red berry fruit and ripe damson. This is a wonderful example of youthful Rioja.

Pulenta La Flor Malbec, Mendoza, Argentina, 2015/16 14.5% £25.50

Deep, purple colour and wonderfully complex flavours dominated by rich, ripe brambly fruit, and hints of wood smoke and tobacco. Full-bodied Argentinian Malbec at its best.

Ronan by Clinet, Ch. Clinet, Bordeaux, 2012 13.5% £27.50

The team behind the wine at Pomerol's celebrated Ch. Clinet has produced this extraordinarily good value wine. Made from 100% Merlot, this has a primary fruit nose with blackberry, bramble and subtle spice, fine tannins and plenty of structure.

Berrys' Extra Ordinary Claret, J-M Cazes, Bordeaux, 2013/14 13% £30.95

Produced especially for Berry Bros. by Bordeaux-legend Jean-Michel Cazes, this elegantly balanced Claret is deliciously complex on the nose with notes of briary fruit, spicy oak, a touch of leather and smoke. Typically 'Graves' on the palate, this has a seamless structure, generous fruit and an engaging sense of energy on the finish.

Berrys' New Zealand Pinot Noir, Greystone, Waipara, 2014/15 13.5% £31.95

A bright, fresh and lean wine with sweet red cherry fruit and an appealing savoury character. An herbaceous note lifts the finish and the tannins are fine, adding definition. This is a fresh, pure, mineral style of Pinot Noir.

St. Aubin Rouge, 1er Cru, Derrière La Tour, Jean-Claude Bachelet, Burgundy, 2013 13% £42.95

Benôit and Jean-Baptiste Bachelet have made a dense, rich, full red with a sprightly dark cherry bouquet. Pure, linear and concentrated, and made from miniscule yields, this is a wine to savour.

Crozes-Hermitage, Maison Nicolas Perrin, Rhône, 2010 13% £44.75

The average age of the vines in this Crozes is over thirty years. Elegant and poised, with blackberries and pepper, cherries and cloves all evidenced, this is an attractive and nicely structured wine.

Gevrey-Chambertin, Domaine Louis Boillot, Burgundy, 2012 13% £57.95

Made from 40 year old vines, this wine has been aged 18-20 months in mostly older barrels and bottled without fining or filtration. Bertrand Maume has produced an earthy and rustic wine – a classic style of Gevrey-Chambertin - which has a good balance between the crunchy dark red fruit, acidity and tannins.

Dessert Wines

Ch. Partarrieu, Sauternes, France 2012 (37.5cl) 13.5% 37.5cl Bottle £26.95

This 150 year old property in the commune of Fargues lies just to the East of Château Rieussec and to the north of Ch. de Fargues. The property has plantings consisting of 95% Sémillon and 5% Sauvignon old vines and has produced this lovely concentrated sweetie with firm acidity and generous fruit.

Berrys' Sauternes, Ch. Doisy-Vedrines 2012 (37.5cl) 13.5% 37.5cl Bottle: £26.95

Jurançon enjoys the benefits of altitude, a southerly aspect and the cooling influence of the Atlantic. Late harvested Petit Manseng grapes are fermented in oak and the resultant wine has enticing aromas of citrus peel, honey and a touch of truffle.
